World AIDS Day began in 1988 and takes place every year on December 1st. Not only is it an opportunity to commemorate those who have died from an AIDS-related illness, but it's an opportunity to show your support for people living with HIV.

A simple red ribbon is one of the most widely recognized symbols of HIV and AIDS and the people who live with these conditions. The symbol was presented by the Visual AIDS Artists Caucus in 1991. The individuals in this group wished to remain anonymous, keep the image copyright free and create a symbol to raise consciousness of HIV and AIDS. The red ribbon was originally intended to be worn as a badge, but is now used in a wide variety of ways.¹
